Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health, but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions, which seriously tax their strength, as well as nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much nervousness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife, would, it is believed, seldom have to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were resorted to in good time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless. Best of all, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a medicine of known composition, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol in its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended. A little book of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

WATSON NOMINATED BY POPULISTS.

The people's party convention at St. Louis, yesterday, nominated Thomas E. Watson, of Georgia, for president and Samuel Williams, of Indiana, for vice-president, after two stormy sessions, during which the Nebraska and the Minnesota delegations bolted because they could not procure a postponement of the convention until after the nomination had been made by the democratic convention, so that the people's party might nominate W. J. Bryan for president if he were defeated at the democratic convention.

The Nebraska men fought desperately to the last, and when Jay W. Folger, of Albany, N. Y., mounted the platform to place Watson in nomination, they withdrew from the convention, followed by the Minnesota delegation, which consisted of one man, J. T. Weighan. If Wm. J. Bryan is nominated at Denver, the men who walked out of yesterday's convention say that they and the populists of Nebraska will support him to a man.

At the morning session the Nebraska men filibustered so cleverly that several times they threw the convention into a lull. They fought long and hard to have Temporary Chairman Jacob S. Coxey, of Ohio, made permanent chairman, not because of affection they bore him, but because they believed that they could tangle him and stand off the nominations. They were defeated, however, and George A. Honacker, of Jersey City, was made permanent chairman.

Mr. Honacker attacked the courts of the country, under whose ruling he declared, many gross injustices had been committed. He attacked the democratic party for the conduct of President Cleveland in the railroad strike of 1894 and the republican party for the sending of troops to Idaho during the miners' strike. He deprecated the industrial situation of the country, declared the opposition time for a revolution was the present, and asserted that it only needs "the genius of a Robespierre and the eloquence of a Danton, to set the country ablaze."

The platform adopted reaffirms the declarations made by the national convention at Omaha. "The admonitions of Washington's farewell; the State papers of Jefferson, and the words of Lincoln are the teachings of our greatest apostles of human rights and political liberty; declares that the government should issue money; oppose special privilege; uphold free unions and favor public works. In closing the platform proclaims fealty to populism and avers that the party will in future not be drawn upon 'the treacherous rocks of fusion.'"

Thomas E. Watson spent yesterday in Jacksonville, Fla., and the first news of his nomination as the populist candidate for the presidency was carried to him by a correspondent. When asked if he would accept the nomination, Mr. Watson said:

"Not having been officially advised of the action of the convention, I think it would be rather premature for me to say that I will accept the nomination. I have read the outline of the platform adopted this morning and I will not make any positive statement as to acceptance until I reach my home at Thomson, Ga., for which place I leave tonight."

Mr. Watson then went on to explain his advocacy of G. V. Hoke Smith, of Georgia, during the recent gubernatorial campaign in that State. He said that he had been with Mr. Smith in his effort to eliminate the negro from politics and informed the governor that his work was solely for that purpose.

"I do not believe that the negro should have any more political rights than the Indian or the Chinaman, in this country," he said. "With the negro eliminated from politics the State of the South will again be in a position where their wishes will have to be respected and catered to by the dominant political parties."

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I brought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Colr, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Shake off the grip of your old enemy, Neural Starch, by using Ely's Cream Balm. This will the swelling and soreness be driven out of the tender, inflamed membrane. EVELYN ENTERS SUIT.

Evelyn Nishi Thaw, through her personal counsel, Daniel O'Reilly, has brought suit in New York for $50,000 damages against Manager Egan, of the Hotel Knickerbocker, who stated publicly that young Mrs. Thaw and E. R. Farnham had been requested to leave the grill room of the hotel a few nights ago.

Mrs. Thaw's lawyer said that if statements reported to him were true he would file it necessary to sue another hotel man for libel. This arose from Mrs. Thaw leaving the Hotel Prince George, where she has been living since last Saturday.

Mrs. Thaw's lawyer admits that she was in the Knickerbocker grillroom on the night in question with E. R. Farnham. Her lawyer said that she was in the Knickerbocker grillroom on the night in question with E. R. Farnham.
